HALF LOAF BETTER THAN NONE.

The free raw material paragraph in the new tariff bill opens our ports to the world and puts the farmers, the wool growers, the miners and all other producers of raw materials in competition with the whole world. If it forces our producers, and especially our farmers, to sell their products at a lower price, it would be a hard blow to the class that needs help above all others.—Bryan Eagle.

But isn't that what all the Democratic "eagles" voted for? Just how a duty of 15 cents ad valorem on the hair of the angora goat is going to help the sheep and cattlemen, is for the stock raisers to say. It is like raising the duty on fine cotton fabrics and putting pearls on the free list—so few people wear cotton goods and everybody, you know, wears pearls.— Texas Republic.

A half loaf is better than no loaf, and the thousands of Democrats who do not endorse the doctrine of "free raw materials" could not afford to bolt the ticket because of this one issue. Democrats do not agree on every principle of government, but they know the principles of the party as a whole are for the best interests of the people of the United States, and for this reason they make the best platform possible and then all support it.

Nearly everybody is already planning for the joyous Christmas season.
Let The Eagle make this suggestion: Pick out some poor child, two or three would be better, that you know will have but little of those things that make glad the hearts of children at Christmas, and begin planning now to see what you can do for them. When Christmas comes and you see their little eyes sparkling and their faces shining with joy, lo! your own cup will be running over, and it will be the happiest Christmas for you, you ever experienced in your life.

Will Mayes has cast his hat in the gubernatorial ring. He has not yet issued his declaration of principles, but says in his "coming out" statement that he is both a Statewide prohibitionist and local optionist; also that he will not accept campaign contributions in any form, from any source. Mr. Mayes is evidently not going to take any chances on being Sulzerized.

It is announced that Gen. Portro Diaz has been recalled to Mexico.
General Diaz is 84 years of age and if he is as wise as we believe him to be, he will not hear the call, but will remain where he is and spend his last days in peace and quietude.

It is announced that the Federals in Mexico are pursuing the rebels.
They should be careful. The record is that Federals who have pursued rebels in the past have pursued them too far, and been captured themselves and shot.

It is announced that Huerta will support Gamboa. If Huerta is not more popular in Mexico than he is in the United States, he will not add much to Gamboa's strength.

To be a multi-millionaire is to court misery, unrest and worry. The inheritance tax alone on the fortune of the late J. P. Morgan was two and a half million dollars. That much taxes is enough to make any man in the world worry himself to death.

We wish to call the attention of Colonel Green of the Tyler Courier-Times, and Ed Blackshear of the Navasota Examiner, that our turnip patch is coming by leaps and bounds.
We'll be sending you a mess in just a few days.

Bryan's tin bucket brigade is big, but it should be bigger. The larger the brigade the larger the weekly pay rolls, and the larger the pay rolls the greater will be the volume of retail business.

Col. Bailey of the Houston Post, says if he could get a strong enough flat car, he would ship a South Texas pumpkin to the South Carolina state fair this fall.

Sweet potatoes are fine, hogs are getting fat and possums are ripe. If there is anything lacking to make life one "grand sweet song," we don't know what it is.

The boys are announcing for Governor right along. If Cullen Thomas don't get in pretty soon, he's liable to be left at the post.

Bryan needs a few more smokestacks to break the monotony of the present skyline.

REV. DAUP ADDRESSES A. AND M. STUDENT BODY

Bryan Episcopal Minister Conducts First Chapel Exercises of Session to Large Audience.

Rev. W. W. Daup, the Bryan Episcopal minister, conducted the first chapel exercises of the session at the A. and M. College yesterday morning.
The cadet corps gathering in the old mess hall.

Rev. Daup's sermon was very appropriate for the beginning of the school year, his subject being "The Choice of Ideals." The text was taken from Jeremiah 9:23: "Thus saith the Lord: let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich glory in his riches."

Rev. Daup showed the practicability of Christ as the ideal in a young man's life, and entreated his hearers to choose well. The address was eloquent and earnest, and the singing of familiar hymns in which all participated tended to make the chapel service a privilege.

Mr. Case rendered a vocal solo which was greatly appreciated, both by the old boys who had heard Mr.
Case last year, and by the new boys who listened to him for the first time.

GAVE COWS TO ORPHAN HOME

Rev. J. J. Pipkin, who represents Buckner's Orphan Home of Dallas in this part of the State, has just made another shipment of three milch cows to the home. They were donated by Mr. C. A. Harris of Bryan, Mr. Columbus Jones of Providence, and Mrs.
Pipkin of Bryan. The good people of Bryan have donated a number of cows to this institution and their good work is greatly appreciated by the management.

The Great Three Reel Feature

1. UNCLE TOM'S CABIN (Part 1).... Highly Sensational You all have read the story or seen the play on the stage, and I do not need to introduce this famous story of the slavery days.
2. UNCLE TOM'S CABIN (Part 2).... Thrilling and Throbbing The chase over the ice with the bloodhounds and the capture of the slave. Don't miss this great feature.
3. UNCLE TOM'S CABIN (Part 3).... Great Start Right Feature Be sure and bring the children and come yourself, as you will see one of the finest stories ever produced—one that you have heard of, and I know that you will want to see this great feature in three great reels.

SPECIAL FOR ALL THE CHILDREN AND LADIES.

TOMORROW—FROM 4 TO 11

1. THIRTEEN AT A TABLE—A Ripping Comedy..... Eclair No matter how they try, they can't get fourteen at the table. Be sure and see this.
2. THE MYSTERY OF THE YELLOW ASTOR MINE.... 101 Bloon A great Western drama that appeals. See the great mine scene.
3. THE MYSTERY OF THE YELLOW ASTOR MINE.... Drama See the big fight between the miners and Indians. The rescue. Just a 101 Bloon—that's all. They are all good.
